

Bright Scholar School recently hosted a successful Parent-Teacher Meeting, fostering meaningful conversations between parents and teachers. It was a wonderful opportunity to discuss student progress, set goals for the upcoming term, and strengthen the partnership between home and school to support every child's growth and success.