

Bright Scholar Senior Secondary School recently hosted a POCSO training workshop, empowering teachers with knowledge on child protection and the POCSO Act. Key learnings included fostering a culture of disclosure, recognizing signs of abuse, and implementing clear reporting protocols.

This proactive initiative reinforces the school's commitment to creating a safe, supportive environment for every child's well-being.